

Jennifer Scott – Educational Qualifications & Experience

Head of Vocal Jazz Department at Vancouver Community College – 5 years

- private vocal instructor
- class jazz piano
- vocal improvisation course creator and instructor
- commercial ear training instructor
- master class co-ordinator and instructor
- co-ordinator for the technical requirements of new and existing students for five years.

Capilano Community College

- private vocal instructor for four years in Jazz Degree Program
- substitute teacher for Improvisation course, Commercial Ear training course and Master Class.

Private Vocal Coach

- operating a music school –piano, voice & theory for the last 22 years
- clinics privately run through Bowen Island, Denman Island and locally, in Vancouver

Clinician and Adjudicator

- Envision Surrey Jazz Festival
- Boise State University
- Edmonds Community College Jazz Fest Invitational
- Kelowna Invitational Jazz Festival
- Vancouver Community College Aboriginal Music Conference (2007, 2008, 2009)
- Worked as Clinician in all Vancouver Area High Schools – contract.
- B.C. Swing Music Workshop – permanent faculty
- Puget Sound Guitar Workshop (vocal instructor)
- California Coast Music Workshop (vocal workshops)
- Georgia Strait Music Workshops (vocals, performance techniques)
- Moveable Music School – permanent faculty
- Adjudicator for Factor and Canada Council Grant Applicants
- 2007 Swing Intensive, Centrum, Port Townsend, WA
- Workshop Coordinator, Southridge Performing Arts High School
- Vocal/Piano representative for Canada Council Recording Grants
- Vancouver Community College, diploma Jazz Studies
- University of British Columbia, undergraduate studies, classical.
- Clinician: Selkirk College, Nelson; Courtenay, BC, Western Washington Univ.

Additional Biography & Quotes: www.jenniferscott.ca